

2019 IBC Scholarship Competition Application

Sponsored by Colorado's Independent Community Banks and the Independent Bankers of Colorado

The Independent Bankers of Colorado (IBC) will award at least two (2) $1,000 one-year scholarships, to be applied towards the cost of tuition, fees, and books at a public or private university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school. Awardees will be announced April 26, 2019. Payment will be made directly to the school following enrollment and after classes have begun. This is a statewide scholarship contest.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible, the student must be a full-time high school senior. The student must have applied to, and will attend, a Colorado (or contiguous state) public or private university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school after high school graduation. The student or his/her parent(s) or guardian(s) may not be an employee of the Independent Bankers of Colorado. In addition, due to the far reaching possible ramifications of Amendment 41, Ethics in Government, that amended Colorado's Constitution, if the student or his/her parent(s) work for any city, state or county office, you may not be eligible for this scholarship contest. Before applying, please consult with your trusted advisor on this issue.

Requirements

- A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0
- Student must attend a Colorado (or contiguous state) university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school after high school graduation
- Student or parent(s)/guardian(s) have a banking relationship at an IBC member bank or branch for at least six months. To find out if your bank is an IBC member call 303-832-2000
 - Please note the following financial institutions are NOT members of the IBC: All credit unions, Wells Fargo, Chase, KeyBank, USBank, and Vectra
- Application must be complete, typed, and signed by a bank representative
- Student must answer the assigned essay question
- Deadline for submission to your bank is Friday, March 22, 2019

Selection of Scholarship Recipients

The IBC's independent scholarship committee will review all applications from IBC member banks and select at least two $1,000 scholarship winners. Winners will be announced April 26, 2019. The scholarships will not be based on financial need but on the quality of the application, references, and essay response. Awards will be presented at the IBC's Annual Convention on Thursday, September 26, 2019 at the Vail Marriott Mountain Resort.

Along with the completed application, the student must also submit:

1. Official school transcript with SAT or ACT test scores (or both).
2. Three (3) letters of recommendation, one of which must be from a school counselor or teacher and at least one personal reference.
3. Verification of acceptance to a public or private university, college, junior or community college, or vocation/trade school (if available).

If there is anything additional you want the scholarship selection committee to know about you, include that information here:

Using a separate sheet of paper, type an essay on:

Think you're up to the challenge of our scholarship contest? Pick out an article in your local news that pertains to your community (other than celebrity), and write an essay (two to three pages, double-spaced, 12-point font) describing the economic concepts that pertain to that issue and how it will impact your community.

ESSAY GRADING CRITERIA

Essays will be graded using these five criteria: 1. Comprehension: How well does the essay reflect a thorough understanding of the economic issues of the topic? 2. Organization: Does the argument follow a logical and easily understood progression? Does the corroborating evidence support the essay's main points? 3. Conclusions: Do the conclusions follow logically from the argument? Are the conclusions compelling? 4. Creativity: Were diverse resources and ideas used to develop the main points? 5. Writing Style: Were concise language and correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation used?

RETURN THIS APPLICATION AND ESSAY, WITH REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION, TO YOUR BANK BY FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 2019.

Thank you for banking and visiting your Colorado independent community bank and participating in the IBC scholarship program. We wish you the best in your college career and future.

BANKERS –

The IBC will award at least two $1,000 scholarships to deserving high school seniors in two categories – one to a child of a bank employee or an employee of a bank and one to a child of a bank customer (categories). This contest is available to all IBC member banks ONLY. There is NO cost to participate in this program.

Keep this application. If you receive more than one essay, for a category, you must select which essay to send to the IBC. One scholarship from each category may be submitted per BANK – NOT per branch (please coordinate with your locations.) Once you have selected your application(s), mail the completed application(s) to: IBC, 600 Grant Street, Suite 640, Denver, CO 80203. Should you have any questions, please contact Maelynn Lewis at 303.832.2000.

Applications must be postmarked on or before Friday, April 1, 2019.
